Issue 158

How do you know the food in the desert didn't stay warm on Shabbos? Cause that would be Hot-manna.

You get it? Manna is the food in the desert. Hotmanna is covering a pot to keep food warm on Shabbat.

RABBI ANSWERS HIS PUPILS

Dear Rabbi. With antisemitism in these time it appears that people are afraid to show up to events when they know where they are. What should we do?

Shalom My Dear Pupil. So they're organizing events and not telling people where they are. I say, go to the events. In person. Even if you know where they are. And these organizations are trying to figure out why people aren't showing up. Let me share with you a New Wise Men of Chelm Storie.

•Excited for Israel Independence Day, Lazer shouted, 'Who's going to the Yom HaAtzmaut parade of Jewish pride?' All were ready to show their Jewish pride in a safe undesigned location. Duvidel the party pooper answered, 'I don't know where it will be... How do you show up to a parade if you don't know where it is. How do you show pride if you are afraid of people knowing where you are. Where do you walk on a parade if you can't be seen. How do you show to "I don't know where." And the Wise Men and Women were in shock by Duvidel's stupidity. Protests of, 'You cynic,' 'There goes Duvidel ruining another great program. The little he knows...'

•Donors poured in millions for the security plans of not telling people about event locations. Yankel with Chutzpah asked, 'What about Jewish day school. Educating our children.' To which Berel the Gabai responded, 'You fool. School is not safe.' To which Yankel agreed and the children didn't show up to school anymore. For their safety, every day they were told to show up to somewhere without being told where it was. And all of the children of Chelm were safe.

HALACHA SHVUI: Covering food with a thing, like a shirt, that doesn't add heat, can be done before Shabbat, if you're fine smelling like choolante.

SERMONS OF REBUKE: BEHALOTCHA

Shabbat Shalom My Pupils...

Aharon waves the Leviim... You have to be strong to be a Kohen Gadol. You wave the guys. Our shul can't even do Hagba... You purify them then wave them. Nobody wants to wave a bad smelling Levite...

(Bamidbar 9:2-3) You bring the Pesach offering 'BMoado' at its time. Its proper time... done on time. The shul's monthly calendar has to be put out before the month is over... We didn't have a Minyin because everybody showed up not on time... The proper time is not 10:35am...

Things have to be done at the right time. Bernie. Wake up. There sermon is not the time to sleep... The fact you can't hear your snoring is bothersome. Did anybody see the microphone?... Yes. We're going to stop the sermon for Hashavas Aveida... It's stealing. The shul is a vortex for lost stuff. The amount of time I've lost having to sit and listen to congregants. Committees...

Kiddish club makes you cool???? Is that how you purify yourself before coming to the shul, 10 minutes late into Musaf...

Rivka's Notes on Rabbi Mendelchem's Sermon:
The snoring was loud. Bernie's in his nineties. I think that older people snore louder because they can't hear as well. A phone chain went out for the mic. Looked everywhere. Pesicha. Taking out the Torah, he was looking for the mic.

SHUL ANNOUNCEMENTS

We ask you not snore during the rabbi's sermon. It keeps people up.

The spoiled milk is still sitting out in the shul lobby. Will anybody clean it up?

Did anybody see the microphone? It appears somebody stole the shul microphone and we need it. There is an event this week.

We also can't find the Shiva Siddurs. This shul is a vortex of loss. The annual report shows an eighty thousand dollar net loss this year.

Snobby and snooty shul members are not welcome. We have finally said it. We don't like you. You are not cool coming to shul and hanging out with your 'boys.' It's shul. It's not a cool thing.

Contemporary Halacha Classes: How to Not Spend Money You Owe the Rabbi. How to Not Lose Everything: Why Not to Come to Shul.

All classes this week are cancelled.

The Kibbitzer this week is dedicated to all of our holy brothers and sister who have been affected by the terror.
